We would like to draw the attention of the client to the fact that LED's are manufactured in batches and there is an inevitable variance, in terms of brightness and color, between the batches. We do ensure that spare modules are available for the initial 12 month warranty period, however thereafter we cannot guarantee availability of modules with LEDs from the same batch.

Although our products are manufactured to a high standard of quality and longevity, in time, the need for these specific spare may arise due to either fault or possible outside interference such as vandalism or simple accident. By the client having spare modules available, we are able to affect a 'swap out' repair, which limits down time and labor costs while ensuring and exact LED match.

Spare Cabinets can be ordered at the time of purchase, or within a limited maximum timeframe of up to 60 days thereafter. The prices quoted below substantially discounted and are restricted to this offer!
